

MR. W. LENNON

Oddfellows' Presentation at Stoney Middleton

An interesting presentation took place at Mr. W. Lennon's home, The Dale, Stoney Middleton, on Saturday, when Mr. William Lennon was the recipient of a life-size photograph of himself, with the following inscription:—

Mr. W. Lennon

Presented to Brother William Lennon by the members of the Determined Lodge of Oddfellows as a mark of appreciation of his services as secretary for the past 37 years. December, 1936."

Mr. Thomas Carter (treasurer), who made the presentation, spoke of the good work Mr. Lennon had done for the Lodge and the village, and said that if Stoney Middleton had been a city he would have been the first lord mayor.

Mr. E. Maltby, representing the district, presented Mr. Lennon with an up-to-date barometer on behalf of the Lodge, and spoke of the high esteem in which Mr. Lennon was held throughout the district. As a panel auditor, he had always found Mr. Lennon's books were a credit wherever they went to be audited.

Mr. Lennon, in expressing his thanks, said it was always his wish that the society should prosper, and be properly carried on.

Those present were Messrs. T. Carter (treasurer), W. Unwin, J. Mason (trustees), G. Mason, S. Jackson and F. Hancock (committee), E. Maltby and W. Daniel (representing the Baslow and Buxton District, Manchester Unity of Oddfellows), P. Lennon (chairman of committee), and F. Bramwell (secretary).

Mr. Lennon has also done good work on the insurance committee in the Baslow and Buxton district. He is the head of the firm of Messrs. W. Lennon and Sons, boot manufacturers Stoney Middleton.
